Chapter 14

14:1 The “novol” said in his heart there is no Elokim –God who creates administers the world and demands an accounting . . . Novol is translated by Targum Yoneson the idiot one who is stupid said there is no God .

Targum Yoneson translates in Bible Samson I 25:25

“ unevolo hu-” that contains the root word “novol”- stupidity . This novol this idiot refers not only to one individual ;but refers to a nation to a society. They are depraved they usher in destruction of others . Ultimately they will fall victim of their short sightedness and stupidity.

When one believes that every thing that occurs happens by chance and he need not give an accounting to God ;such a person is a fool stupid and an idiot. One who believes that the one who possesses superior strength, superior cruelty ,superior cunning , is the greatest fabricator , can lie with a straight face , is the greatest swindler wins; is a fool stupid an idiot.

David composed this Psalm having Ruach Hakodesh- a form of prophesy.

David prophesized that [1] Nevuzeraden a general in the Babylonian army will destroy the first Temple and exile the Jews ,who were not killed, to Babylonia.

[2] In Tehilim chapter 53 a very similar Psalm is recorded. This Psalm refers to Titus the Roman emperor who destroyed the Second Holy Temple built 70 years after the destruction of the First Temple.

The Second Temple lasted 420 years . Such is the interpretation of Rashi , who lived at the time of the first Crusades 1100.

However, Malbim who lived in the early 1800s has a different interpretation.

Malbim interprets Psalm 14 as referring to the trials and tribulations of David himself. His enemies did not accept God .

Psalm 53 refers to the destruction of the First Temple. Psalm 53 was not written by David. It was inserted in the book of Psalms because the tragedy and anguish caused by the destruction was equal and by passed the worst troubles David experienced.

The book of Psalms has ten authors other than David.

Talmud Bava Basra 14b 15a .

14:2 God looks from His heavenly abode to ascertain is there some one who is wise

who searches for Elokim- God who demands an accounting?

14:3 All have wandered off the path . no one is Tov –good [ All are stupid.] Not even one[ is wise.]

14:4 For all these [individuals] willfully transgress. They know the law and the facts. They recklessly elect to kill and cannibalize the bodies of humans ; the bodies of my people –Jews . They never call God . They do not give a second thought.

14:5 The Innocents the Jews were enveloped with fear. How could God forsake a generation of Tzadikim righteous people?

14:6 Jewish enemies sarcastically scorn Jews [where is your God? If He exists why doesn't He come to your salvation?]

14:7 This is the reply .

From Zion will arise the salvation of Israel. When God returns the exiled Jews to the land of Israel ; then Jacob will be happy and Israel will rejoice.

[Then it will be victory for God .

Two GOALS will be ACHIEVED.

[1] God's reputation will be restored God will be vindicated.

The atheist skeptics will be put to shame . They will realize how stupid they were.

[2] The Jewish people will finally find a sanctuary in the land of Israel.

However God helps those who help themselves.

Until Messiah comes Jews will only remain alive if they have superior conventional and non conventional weapons and have the guts to use them;

regardless of the casualties inflicted upon the enemy population. The goal is to win at all costs to the enemy.

The Talmud relates that when God gave the Torah to Moses at Mount Sinai, God revealed to Moses what nuances future Rabbis will discover in the Torah. God showed Moses the nuances discovered by Rav Akiva 60 year following the destruction of The Second Temple. Moses was stunned.

He could not believe that there would arise such a great scholar. Moses asked God what reward Akiva received for such brilliance?

GOD replied that Akiva was tortured to death by the Romans. The Romans crushed the revolt of Bar Kochbo. Rav Akiva and other sages supported Bar Kochbo . They thought he was the Messiah.

Moses was traumatized. He cried out :

“This is Torah and this is its reward???”

Talmud Bavali Menochos 29B

God replied “Keep quiet. You have not seen the complete picture .”

God showed Moses all the future trials and tribulations endured by the Jewish people.

The destruction of the First Temple. The exile for 70 years to Babylon.

The rebuilding of the Second Temple by order of Koresh and the son of Queen Esther from the Purim story .

God showed Moses the invasion of Israel by Greece under Alexander the Great.

God showed Moses the edict of Antiochus the Greek emperor forbidding the practice of Judaism under pain of death. God showed Moses The gallant victory of the Hasmoneans securing Jewish sovereignty for 100 years under the leadership of the sons and grandchildren of Matishyohu.

The clan of Kohanim.

Their hundred year rule was followed by the rule of Herdos.

Hurdos was an Edomite who was forced to convert to Judaism by King Yanai one of the Hashmonoyim Kings .

Rome insisted that Hurdos become King rather than other Hashmenoyim .

Hurdos was very sensitive to the sensibilities of the Jews. He rebuilt improved and repaired the existing Second Temple. For this he won the love and of most Jews.

How did Rome enter the picture in Judea?

Rome was invited by one of the Hashmenoyim kings to act as a bulwark against Greek aggression. Rome promised to respect the sovereignty and independence of the Jews in Judea [what Israel was then called. ]Rome, however, reneged on its promise and swallowed up Judea as part of the Roman empire. They forced the election of Hurdos as King.

Once Rome swallowed up Judea as part of its empire it taxed the people and enacted many restrictions. Allthis occurred during and following the death of Hurdos during the reign of his sons.

As a result a large group of Jews called zealots plotted to throw off the yoke of Rome . they began a war of liberation that lasted 20 years. The sages and scholars were opposed to this war as well as the sons of Hurdos . they all pleaded with the zealots to stop the revolution. But to no avail.

The zealots swore to free Judea from the yoke of Rome. After 20 years the revolt was crushed by Rome. The Second Temple was burned.

Sixty years later Bar Kochbo led a revolt and destroyed the Roman garrison. He captured Jerusalem and the laid the foundation for a new Temple. Bar Kochbo was supported by all the Sages who thought he was the Messiah.

However Rome crushed the rebellion.

The total number of Jews killed and wounded in the two revolts was over one million.

Rome passed edicts forbidding the practice of circumcision reading and study of Torah, under penalty of death.

The ten greatest Torah scholars were tortured to death. Chanaya Ben Tradyon was burned alive wrapped in the scroll of the Torah.

Rav Akiva had the skin on his face ripped off by a special instrument of torture.

Moses cried out

“ Is this what is Torah[for the creative skills and knowledge of the sages of that generation] and this is its reward? Talmud Bavali Menochos 29b.Targum Yoneson on Bible Deuteronomy 34:1,2,3,4.

Following extension is mine interpretation:

Moses was devastated by viewing what the future had in store for the Jews.

God told Moses that this was just the Beginning.

He showed Moses all what the Jews would experience at the hands of the sons of Essau the Europeans and the sons of Ishmael for the next 2000 years.

Moses saw the pogroms the blood libels the killings of millions of Jews culminating in the holocaust with the Nazis murdering six million Jews and one million Jewish children.

Moses saw the Europeans and the Americans standing by refusing to save the Jews.

They were making sure that as many Jews as possible be killed by the Nazis. So the Jewish problem would be solved. .

Moses saw how the Europeans slaughtered billions of non Jews in the last 2000 years.

Moses saw how the Church translating from the Hebrew distorted the scriptures to vindicate the theology of the Trinity.

Moses saw that all the moral ethical passages in the New Testament came from no other source than the Talmud.

The Church denied the origin of all these passages coming from the Talmud.

The Church ordered the burning of the Talmud in order to conceal the origin of all the moral ethical passages of the New Testament.

The Church forbade the study of Greek and Roman mystery religions and philosophy, on the penalty of death ,in order to keep all the citizens in the dark.

For 1000 years there existed the dark ages. The Church working hand in glove with the monarchs did not want the citizens to learn that the ancient religions of Greece Rome and India believed in a theology similar to the theology of the Trinity. The Grek Roman Hindu Babylonian theology had a pantheon of gods, in addition to the Father the Son and the Holy Ghost. What Christianity accomplished was to get rid of the pantheon of gods.

Otherwise the theology is very similar .

The Church and monarchs believed that in order to keep the their corruption it was mandatory to keep the people ignorant completely in the dark. Thinking and questioning was forbidden under penalty of being burned alive at the stake. The year 1600 was ushered in by burning a great philosopher at the stake. These harsh measures were thought necessary in order to maintain the different classes and the status quo. Otherwise, the people would revolt.

They preached what people don't know does not hurt. Knowledge is dangerous. This suppression- dark ages- was finally broken in the 1600s, the age of the philosophers free thinkers Deists The winds of revolution in The Americas both North America and South America and the French Revolution. The rise of Napolian and the transformation of Europe .

However the winds of progression were paralyzed in 1920s by economic crises and stupidity of the Allies regarding Germany after its defeat in 1918. The combination of Allied stupidity and economic crises set the stage for Communism in Russia and the Nazis in Germany. Fascism in Italy and Spain. This led to the Second World War. The Second World War was part two of the First World War.

Over 100 million people in addition to the six million Jews and one million Jewish children were killed during World War two.

All this Moses was shown .[My interpretation ]

Moses could no longer remain patient.

“How could you ? Where were you during all the killings and exile of the Jews.?” Moses screamed out. [my interpretation ]

God finally revealed the resurrection of the State of Israel in 1948. God revealed to Moses how He preserved the Jews from 1947-2016. How a

He enabled the Jews to get atom hydrogen neutron Torah bombs. How Israel's 7 million Jews can stand against 7 billion non Jews all over the world. All this God showed Moses.[my interpretation]

This essay is a combination from a few sources.

[1] The Interpretation of Yoneson Ben Uziel on Bible Deuternomy34:1,2,3,4 goes up to the destruction of the Second temple by Rome .

[2] The Babylonian Talmud Menochos 29b has the story of God showing Moses the creative scholarship of Rav Akiva and his tragic death.

Moses is bewildered and confronts God “This is Torah and such is its reward?”

Malbim -living beginning of 1800s - at the end of Bible book of Daniel predicts from his interpretation that there will be World Wars- the wars of Gog and Mogug that precede the coming of the Messiah . Starting in 1914 millions would be killed . At the end Jews would rebuild the State of Israel Messiah would come and the dead will be resurrected. These are the sources I used for this essay.
