chapter 21

Tora and Judaism must address all reality. When archeologist and scientists present empirical evidence that bones exist that they carbon dated to have lived millions of years ago we must reconcile with our understanding of the Bible that claims that G-d created the world in seven days. There exists two ways to reconcile [1] We can state that the archeologists' and scientists' data is not accurate. Who says that the oxidation of matter 5768 years ago occurred at the same rate that it occurs today? There exists no one alive today who was alive 5768 years ago when the world was created who took such tests that archeologists are taking today. Consequently , it is pure speculation and no more than a religious belief that the rate of oxidation 5768 years ago was the same as that today. The same is true with the bones of animals found and the bones of what appears as homo sapiens. Who says that these bones are not of those animals and humans who perished in the great deluge at the time of Noah. Who is alive today who was alive 5000 years ago who can deny that these are the skeletons of the animals and humans who were destroyed by G-d in the great deluge. All nations and cultures have in their folk lore and religion some trace and comment about this great natural disaster. this is the explanation of Rav Kamenetzki Rosh Yeshiva of Torah Vodaat.

[2 ] A second approach is to concede that the archeologists and scientists are correct. when the Bible states that G-d created the world in seven days it refers to the days of G-d that can be a million or a billion years each. The theory of evolution can also be integrated . G-d created the world in a manner that more advance forms of life metamorph from less complex forms of life.

According to the writings of Kaballah we are living in the 9999 world. Other prior worlds were created and destroyed by G-d. There were humans alive who behaved like animals -apes - So G-d turned them into apes. This is a reverse of Darwin's theory of evolution. rather that man comes from monkeys ;monkeys come from man. The Torah that we possess in the Talmud and its summary in the Shulchan Aruch does not discuss prior worlds. The Talmud and Shulchan Aruch discuss our world that we live in today. what difference does it matter any way if there existed homo sapiens prior to Adam ? Even if they did exist, G-d could have created Adam as related in the Biblical story. Even if the universe is millions or billions years old and the archeologists and scientists are correct , God could have created our present world after aprior world was destroyed. Historical records exist for the last 5000-5700 years ago. THE TORAH THAT WE HAVE IS VIABLE FOR MAN EVEN IF THE UNIVERSE IS BILLION OF YEARS OLD. This is the position of Rav Kook for Chief Rabbi of Israel who died in 1936.

This is also the position of Rav Herz chief Rabbi of Great Britain. the Pentateuch and Hafotoras Soncino Press edited by dr. J.H. Herz. See his introduction to Genesis.\

The Torah is not a scientific journal. The Rambam when he discusses the make up of stars and planets was writing using the scientific and philosophical knowledge that existed in his time 900 years ago. If today scientists prove his theories erroneous . so what. That has no effect as to what the Rambam writes regarding Ritual Laws Civil Laws and Criminal Laws of the Torah. G-d at Sinai 3400 years ago did not reveal scientific knowledge. He revealed only laws regarding Ritual Civil and Criminal matters. Thus one can disregard and smile at what the RAMBAM AND OTHER MEN LIVING 900 YEARS AGO ASSUMED EXISTS ON THE STARS AND PLANETS. If they claimed that the moon and the planets were inhabited by angels we can see that such is not the case when man landed on the moon. When we send a mission to Mars or Venus or Saturn or Jupiter we can ascertain that these planets have solid surfaces and are not gaseous matters inhabited by angels. Such is the explanation of Rav Kamentezki in his book emet LeYaakov on the Pentateuch.

METAMORPHOSE OF

CREATING gods

Orthodox Jewish Perspective

Any belief system that is not based on Torah from Sinai is considered another religion for Jews . Man creates other gods in his image who are clones of himself/herself. All men create gods that are their own clones once the moorings of Torah from Sinai are removed.

4000 years of history reveals man's, propensity to create gods in his image. God created man in his image and man creates gods in his own image. Zecharia writes that at the end of time God.'s name will be one. Obviously God's name is presently one. But in man's mind the gods that he created are not one ;but many. Each man creates the god who is the clone of himself/herself.

Torah permits man to interpret God's law once he/she has mastered and observes the four parts of the Shulchan Aruch according to what they in their mind understand. Their mind is the sum total of all their experiences -their personality .

However one who has not met such prerequisites is in effect creating gods , not Torah.

Perspective from the point of view of non Jewish religions.

God is unknown . The Bible the Pentateuch in Exodus 33:20 Parshas Ki Siso states that when Moses asked to see God , God replied for no man can see God and live . THUS NO MAN KNOWS THE TRUE ESSENCE OF GOD.

All that man can perceive are the attributes of God.

It is fair to generalize that all existing and past religions will agree that when they speak about revelation of the Word of God or that God appeared in the form of a human , such revelation or appearance was for a very brief time. At most the man god lived no more than 33 years and then disappeared . Each religion has a different story. A number of religions have a similar story of god appearing in the form of a human the son of a god and a human virgin who preaches and tries to reform mankind , antagonizes the priests in power , is tried and is condemned to be crucified or buried alive. After his death he stays in hell for three days then is resurrected and joins the father god in heaven and is part of a trinity or greater combination of gods.

The ancient Egyptians the Hindus the Greeks Romans Babylonians the Africans the Phoenicians all subscribe to the creed of incarnation- a human man god is born from the union of a god with a virgin. Pharaoh from Egypt Hercules and Alexander from Greece the Inca rulers in Peru -South America , the Roman emperors the Japanese emperor all claim that they are the offsprings of the union of gods with mortal virgins. The Popes claim that they have the power of Jesus and the holy Ghost They represent infallible truth. They retain the power at all times to interpret the old and New Testament and represent the only legitimate channel in the universe who know God's will.
